CRAZY HAIR DAY—THURSDAY 20TH MARCH

Ash Wednesday was this week, marking the start of the Christian season of Lent.

Our Infant and Junior School Councils have selected UNICEF and Make a Wish charities to benefit from this year's Lent appeal.

On Thursday 20th March we will having a Crazy Hair Day to raise funds for these charities.

Children can bring £1 donation and attend school with crazy hairstyles (hair colour, wigs and gel all allowed—be as creative as you like!). School uniform should be worn as normal.

Thank you for your support.

LENT BOOKLETS

During the season of Lent, children have a daily opportunity to reflect on the value of Trust (our current worship theme). They have each been given a Lent Booklet containing daily reflection activities.

At the end of Lent, the children will be bringing these booklets home.

HOLI FESTIVAL

We wish all our Hindu families celebrating the Holi Festival next week a very happy Holi!

Early Help Parenting Team would like to invite you to our FREE SEND: How to support your child with their emotions workshops.

This workshop includes:

- Understanding sensory needs & support strategies.
- Strategies to support your child to regulate their emotions.
- Opportunity to meet other parents over a cup of tea or coffee.

We will provide drinks but not food, so we encourage you to bring along some snacks or lunch.
