CRAZY HAIR DAY—THURSDAY 20TH MARCH

Our Infant and Junior School Councils have selected UNICEF and Make a Wish charities to benefit from this year's Lent appeal.

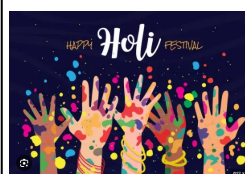

On Thursday 20th March we will have a Crazy Hair Day to raise funds for these charities.

Children can bring £1 donation and attend school with crazy hairstyles (hair colour, wigs and gel all allowed—be as creative as you like!). School uniform should be worn as normal.

Thank you for your support.

HAPPY HOLI

We wish all our Hindu families a very happy Holi!

Driving Safer For Longer

A FREE Road Safety Course for older drivers

Join us for a free driving confidence course that is being run in association with West Midlands Police and National Highways. The course will provide information, advice and guidance to help those intending on 'driving safer for longer'

Tuesday 11th March 2025
Walsall Arena and Arts Centre, Bloxwich

Wednesday 14th May 2025
The Wheelhouse, Wolverhampton Cricket Club

Refreshments available from 9:45am for a 10:00am start. Course will finish at 1:00pm.

Places will be allocated on a first come basis. Please contact the Road Safety and Travel Awareness team to book your place on one of the above courses.

YEAR 2 WALSALL LIBRARY VISITS

Over the next few weeks, the Year 2 classes will be visiting Walsall Library to carry out some research for their local history curriculum.

GREAT BRITISH SPRING CLEAN

The Great British Spring Clean begins soon. Some of the Infant and Junior children will carry out a litter pick to help keep the local area litter free!

Early Help Parenting Team would like to invite you to our FREE SEND: How to support your child with their emotions workshops.

This workshop includes:

- Understanding sensory needs & support strategies.
- Strategies to support your child to regulate their emotions.
- Opportunity to meet other parents over a cup of tea or coffee.

We will provide drinks but not food, so we encourage you to bring along some snacks or lunch.
