TERM TIME LEAVE

The Governors have a strict pupil attendance policy that does not allow pupils to have extended leave for holidays or other circumstances during term-time. This policy is consistently applied by the Governing Body. This is in line with national government and local authority expectations and guidelines.

Please do not book flights or holidays for dates during term-time. If your child has unauthorised extended term-time leave you will be fined by the local authority or your child could lose their place at Blue Coat.

BLUE COAT FESTIVAL 2025

This year's exhibition and service will celebrate the 60 year anniversary of the three Blue Coat schools moving into the buildings they are in now.

If you have any photographs or historical documents linked to the Blue Coat schools that you would be happy to lend us for the exhibition, please let Mr. Orlik know.
